

Alabama Jubilee

Traditional Old-Time Bluegrass Jazz tune & Song. George L. Cobb, music; Jack Yellen, lyrics; DATE: 1915; CATAGORY: Instrumental Tuens;
RECORDIG INFO: Tweedy Brothers; Roy Clark; Clark Kessinger; Clarence White; Wayne Henderson; NOTES: Recorded by many bluegrass pickers usually as an instrumental. Jack Yellen also composed the lyrics to "Happy Days are Here Again." Usually the Chorus is the only part sung by bluegrass pickers.

A7 D

G

6

C A7

13

Spoken

Dm C

19

E7 F C D7 G C

26

CHORUS: You ought to see ^{A7}Deacon Jones

When he rattles them bones

^DOld Parson Brown, foolin' 'round like a clown

^GAunt Jemima, who is past eighty three

^CShoutin' I'm full o' pep!

(Spoken) Watch yo' step! Watch yo' step!

^{A7}One legged Joe danced aroun' on his toe,

^{Dm}Threw away his crutch and hollered, "Let 'er go!"

^COh, honey, hail! ^{E7}Hail! ^FThe gang's all here, ^C

^DFor the Alabama ^GJubilee! ^C